I understand the IRO will receive and review the following information from Cigna, its Agents or subsidiaries:

- Any medical records and other documents that have been received and were reviewed during the internal review process.
- Documents from the internal review process, including a statement of the criteria and clinical reasons for the initial coverage decision.
- The contract document for my health care benefit plan (the description of my coverage).
- Any additional information not presented during the internal review process that has been received related to the appeal.

I understand that I may submit additional information related to this appeal (including medical records) WITH THIS FORM to be considered in the external review process. I understand that the decision of the IRO's reviewer(s) will be binding on the CIGNA and on me, except to the extent that there are other remedies available under State or Federal law. I understand that my appeal to an IRO cannot begin until I have submitted all required information. I understand I must provide the information requested below and if applicable, sign the release of records form which allows Cigna to forward certain information to the IRO. I understand that any forms returned to Cigna incomplete will be returned to me for completion and my appeal will not be forwarded to the IRO until I complete the form and provide all requested information.

I have read and understand the above information.
